ValuPass

The MontanaFair ValuPass gets you general admission to 7 shows for just $67 and is transferable--you can pass it around with family and friends. The ValuPass also includes gate admission on event days. Tickets may be upgraded to reserved seating for an additional fee. Purchased separately, these tickets would cost over $158.

The ValuPass includes general admission to 4 concerts and 3 dirt events in the Rimrock Auto Arena. Rockers, Puddle of Mudd and Theory of a Deadman kick off the fair entertainment Friday, August 8th at 7:00PM. Corbin Bleu of Disney's High School musical performs Saturday, August 9th at 2:00PM and comedian Bill Engvall of Blue Collar comedy fame and of the Bill Engvall Show on TBS performs that night at 7:00PM. Country music duo, Sugarland performs Sunday night, August 10th at 7:00PM.

In addition, the ValuPass gets you general admission into 3 action packed dirt events at MontanaFair. Arenacross races in the Rimrock Auto Arena on Tuesday, August 12th at 6PM, prelims begin at 4PM. Championship bull riding takes place on Friday, August 15th at 7PM. The week caps off with MontanaFair Championship Rodeo, the best of the NRA in terms of points and purse winnings. New to the rodeo this year, a bonus concert! Chris Ledoux's band, Western Underground, will top off the weeklong celebration that is MontanaFair with music and dancing following the rodeo! It's all included in the ValuPass!

This year when you buy the MontanaFair ValuPass, you're eligible to win a $1,000 cash prize from Gap West Broadcasting and other great prizes!
